Food and Beverage

Due to liability and legal restrictions, no outside food and beverage may be brought into the Resort. The Resort reserves the right to charge for any beverages and food supplied in violation of this policy. The Resort specifically prohibits the removal of food from any catered function by the client or any of the invitees. If alcoholic beverages are to be served on the Resort premise, the Resort will require that all beverages are dispensed only by the Resort servers and bartenders. The Resort's alcoholic beverage license requires the Resort to (1) request proper identification of any person of questionable age and refuse alcoholic beverage service if the person is either under age or proper identification cannot be produced and (2) refuse alcoholic beverage service to any person, who, on the Resort's judgment, appears intoxicated.

Banquet Menus

Menu selections for all banquet events should be submitted to your Event Manager a minimum of fifteen (15) business days prior to the event start date to ensure our entire staff can adequately prepare to accommodate your needs. Banquet Event Orders will then be generated by your Event Manager to review and approve to confirm all event details.

Guarantees

Where charges are made on a per person basis, a guaranteed attendance must be communicated to the Event Management office by noon, three (3) business days prior to the event. Guarantees for Saturday, Sunday and Monday are due by noon the preceding Wednesday. Guarantees for Tuesday are due by noon the preceding Thursday. This number is not subject to reduction. If no guarantee is received, the number indicated on the event order will be considered as such. The Resort cannot be responsible for services over (5%) of the guarantee for events up to 500 people or three percent (3%) for events exceeding 500 people.

Please refer to the Resort's Banquet Menus for minimum requirements for number of guests served and for changes should guaranteed number of guests be less than required minimums.

Service Charge / Tax

All food and beverage will be subject to a 24% taxable service charge and a Florida State sales Tax of 6.5%.

Function Space

The Resort has reserved adequate function space based on the contracted number of people and set requirements. Should the number of people or set requirements change, the Resort reserves the right to reassign any or all of the function space to accommodate both the group and any other group utilizing the facilities and services of the Resort. The Resort does not guarantee that event space not outlined on the contractual event agenda will be available.

Outdoor Function

A $7.50 per person service fee will be applied to all outdoor banquet events. In compliance with the Orange County Noise Code Ordinance, events must conclude by 10:00pm. Any props, décor and/or entertainment must be coordinated in advance with your Event Manager. Customized menu packages and enhanced lighting are also available, please consult your Event Manager for further details.

Weather Guidelines for Outdoor Functions

The Resort reserves the right to make final decisions to move any schedule functions indoors due to inclement

Weather. Should there be a weather report of thirty percent (30%) or more chance of precipitation in the area, the scheduled function will take place in the designated indoor back-up location. Temperatures below 60 degrees and/or wind gust in excess of 20mph shall also be cause to hold the function indoors. The decision will be made by the Resort five (5) hours prior to the scheduled event start time.

Signage/Displays/Damages

Pre-approved signage is permitted in registration areas and immediately outside function rooms. Any additional locations including the Resort's Atrium and indoor/outdoor balconies must be approved in advance with the Event Management office. All signs must be of professional style. The Resort will not permit the affixing of anything to the walls, floors or ceilings of rooms with nails, staples, push pins, tape or any substance. In the event this is done without authorization and any damage is suffered, the cost of repair and/or replacement will be charged to the patron. The Resort is not responsible for the retention or removal of any signs, banners, decorations audio visual or other equipment used in the Resort. All displays or exhibits, if any, must conform to the Orange County Fire Code Ordinance.

Convention Material Storage and Handling

All letters and soft packages will be received at not charge. Each guest may also receive up to five (5) boxes at no charge. There will be a fee of $5.00 per box for all additional boxes and a fee of $50.00 per pallet or crates. All exhibit related packages must be sent to the Drayage Company contracted for the exhibit. Prices are subject to change.

Audio Visual

Our in-house audio visual department will be more than delighted to assist you with your audio visual needs. Price list are available upon request.

Electrical and Rigging

Aerial Rigging and In House Electric are the Resort's exclusive agents to perform rigging and electrical. Should rigging or electrical services be required, please contact your Event Manager in advance of making any electrical or rigging arrangements. The Resort provides at no charge the use of an electrical outlet customarily found installed in function rooms. Any additional electrical needs will be provided at a charge with estimates provided in advance by the resort or its agents based on advance information given. This applies to production sets, exhibits, stage shows, etc. Any additional rigging and electrical charges can be charged to the patron's master account if desire.

Smoking

In accordance with the Florida Clean Air Act, the Resort is a smoke free environment. Smoking is permitted in designated outdoor areas only.

Property Damage

Any damages to the Resort, as a result of group activity, will be subject to a repair charge. A scheduled walk-through should be coordinated through the Event Management office prior to move-in and after move-out to assess the condition.

Lost and Found

The Resort will not be held liable for the damages or loss of any merchandise brought into the Resort by a patron or patron's guest.
